

Early Medieval China Group

The Early Medieval China Group is a scholarly society founded in 1986 at Stanford University. EMCG's purpose is to advance the understanding of the Wei, Jin, and Northern and Southern Dynasties, and of developments at either end of this age. EMCG is a non-profit organization and an affiliate of the Association for Asian Studies. Its annual business meeting and text-reading session are held in conjunction with the AAS conference.

Visit our website at <earlymedievalchinagroup.org>

MEMBERSHIP DUES

Dues for individual membership, domestic and foreign, are $30 per calendar year and include the annual issue of Early Medieval China. Institutional subscription within North America is $35. For international library subscription, the rate is $40. Bank drafts, cashier's checks or money orders are accepted, as are personal checks drawn on a U.S. bank.

Make check payable to The Early Medieval China Group at:

Early Medieval China
c/o Kenneth Klein, Secretary-Treasurer
East Asian Library, University of Southern California
Los Angeles, CA 90089-0182

For further information, please contact Kenneth Klein at the address above or at <kklein@usc.edu>

BACK ISSUES of Early Medieval China

A limited number of original bound copies are available for $20 (through vol. 9) and $25 (later issues). At the EMC Web Archive, vols. 1-6 are publicly accessible. EMCG members additionally have password access to the most recent issues placed online—currently, vols. 7- 9. Password access is not given to libraries or institutional subscribers.

Visit the EMC Web Archive at <www.aall.ufl.edu/EMC>